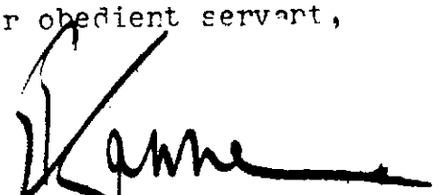
The Secretary to Government,
Law (General) Department,
Madras.

Sir,

Towns Nuisances Act--Kinnigoli village--Mangalore Taluk--empowering the Mennabettu Village Panchayat Court to try offences committed at Kinnigoli--proposal submitted.

In G. O. Ms.528 Law (General) Department dated 17th February 1934 the provisions of sections 3 to 5, 8 and 10 of the Madras Towns Nuisances Act have been extended to the village of Kinnigoli in the Mangalore Taluk of this district. Hitherto the offences committed at the place were tried by the I Class Bench of Magistrates, Mangalore. It is now proposed to empower the Village Panchayat Court at Mennabettu to try such cases as this is more convenient. The village of Kinnigoli is included within the jurisdiction of the said Panchayat Court which commands public confidence. I request, therefore, that the Government may be pleased to empower under section 76 (1) of the Village Courts Act the Village Panchayat Court, Mennabettu to try offences under sections 3 (1) to (9) and (11) and (12), 4 and 5 of the Towns Nuisances Act committed at Kinnigoli.

Your obedient servant,



District Magistrate.
